Coming to Bluffton

Where:

Calhoun Street

When:

Tuesday, March 15, 2016 from 2 p.m. – 7 p.m.

If you weren't able to see the extraordinary animals last year, you have a chance this year. The world-famous Budweiser Clydesdales are returning to Old Town Bluffton on Tuesday, March 15, 2016 for the Clydesdale Parade and the 6th Anniversary of the Old Town Dispensary.

The horses are expected to arrive at 2 p.m. The staging area will be along Calhoun Street between Lawton and Lawrence Streets. It will take a little more than an hour to prepare the animals for the parade once they arrive. At that time, the parade will begin. It will proceed down Calhoun Street, across May River Road, around the Promenade and then return to their starting position on Calhoun Street. There the Clydesdales will remain on display until 7 p.m.

During the parade, May River Road will be closed to all traffic between Goethe and Bluffton Roads.

The above pictures were taken during last year's Clydesdale parade on March 13, 2015.
