Bluffton Police Officer Lauren Brown is a recipient of the First Tee of the Lowcountry 2016 Community Leadership Award. Brown received the honor during a fundraising dinner for the First Tee of the Lowcountry last night.

“Officer Brown is very deserving of this award. She has changed the lives of so many she has come in contact with since first placing the Bluffton badge on her uniform,” said Bluffton Police Chief Joey Reynolds.

Brown was nominated for this award by Bluffton Town Councilman Harry Lutz. “This is recognition of her hard work and dedication to her community. She is a great role model for the community and the Town of Bluffton,” said Councilman Lutz.

The First Tee of the Lowcountry provides an innovative and proven program that uses golf to teach children the important character-building life skills, core values, and healthy habits they can use to succeed throughout their lives.
